

Dear Memebers of the FCC,

I am one of the millions of Amercians who are concerned by the attempt on the part of Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to preempt regular programming to air "Stolen Honor". Sinclair's spokespeople claim that this documentary falls into the category of news, but in point of fact, it is no more news than, say, Fahrenheit 911.

Whether or not we feel that Senator Kerry's actions in opposing the war in Viet Nam was heroic or misguided is not the question. What is in question is the use of the public's airwaves to promote what appears to be part of a smear campaign.

Sincerely,

David B. van Hulsteyn, PhD
